THE HONOURABLE SRI JUSTICE

A.GOPAL REDDY

W.P.No.7260 of 2006

Oral Order:

Petitioner invoked the jurisdiction of this Court under Article 226 of the Constitution not to take any coercive steps against her in respect of loan amount due to the 2nd respondent—bank pending disposal of the representations dated 26-02-2004 and 18-10-2005 submitted before the respondents.

Since no adverse orders are being passed against the respondents issuance of notice is dispensed with. Petitioner stated that her husband availed loan of Rs.3,10,000/- for purchase of tractor from the 2nd respondent—bank and accordingly he paid a sum of Rs.2,90,000/- and due to extremists problems he could not cultivate the land for a period of 12 years and elder son of the petitioner has been murdered in the year 1998 and due to ill health petitioner's husband died in the year 2002 and accordingly the 2nd respondent—bank issued a letter to the petitioner asking her to pay a sum of Rs.4,50,395/- towards loan amount. She made a representation to the 1st and 2nd respondents on 26-02-2004 to provide her opportunity to clear the loan amount in one time settlement. After receipt of the representation also there is no response from the respondents. Therefore, she made another representation dated 18-10-2005, but so far they have not considered the same and in the process they may likely to take coercive steps for due recovery of the loan amount.

In view of the sorrowful statement made by the petitioner respondents are hereby directed to consider the representations made by the petitioner in the light of the policy enunciated by the State Government for one time settlement of the loan borrowed by the agriculturists and pass appropriate orders after due intimation to the petitioner before taking any coercive steps for due recovery of the loan amount.

Writ Petition is accordingly disposed of. No costs.
